DETAILED ACTION

1. This application is in condition for allowance except for the following formal matters: The abstract has been objected too because of its length and because it reads like a claim.

Prosecution on the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

A shortened statutory period for reply to this action is set to expire TWO MONTHS from the mailing date of this letter.

Specification

2. Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

3. The abstract of the disclosure is objected to because it exceeds 150 words and because it reads like a claim. For example, the applicant employs the term "comprises" in line 1. Also the abstract is one sentence in length.

Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1-10 allowed. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Regarding independent claim 1, the prior art does not teach or fairly suggest an address management apparatus comprising a data link layer search means for searching a data link layer table for an unused data link layer address, a corresponding network layer address search means for searching the data link layer address table for a network layer address corresponding to a specified data link layer address, and a data link layer address assignment instruction detection means for detecting the data link layer address assignment instruction to obtain the data link layer address from the instruction.

Regarding independent claim 6, the prior art does not teach or fairly suggest an address management method comprising a data link layer search step for searching a data link layer table for an unused data link layer address, a corresponding network layer address search step for searching the data link layer address table for a network layer address corresponding to a specified data link layer address, and a data link layer address assignment instruction detection step for detecting the data link layer address assignment instruction to obtain the data link layer address from the instruction.

Kawanaka (6,493,340) discloses an automatic network address detection method and device. Figure 2 illustrates a network layer communication control means in which Kawanaka discloses a MAC address acquisition means 14 (column 4, lines 42, 43), an address search means 20 (column 4, lines 44-45), an address table updating means 21 (column 4, line 45), a NSAP-MAC address table 6 that associates a MAC address with a system ID (column 4, lines 24-29).

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
